

Title I, Part A Parent and Family Engagement Policy for George Jr. High School

Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA), Section 1116(b)(1), requires that each Title I, Part A school shall jointly develop with, and distribute to, parents and family members of participating children a written parent and family engagement policy, agreed on by such parents, that shall describe the means for carrying out the requirements of subsections (c) through (f). Parents shall be notified of the policy in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, provided in a language the parents can understand. Such policy shall be made available to the local community and updated periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.

George Jr. High School agrees to implement the following statutory requirements:

- Consistent with section 1116, George Jr. High School will work to ensure that the required school level parental involvement policies meet the requirements of section 1116 of the ESEA, and each include, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with section 1116(d) (2) of the ESSA.
- George Jr. High School will notify parents of the policy in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand. The policy will be made available to the local community and updated periodically to meet the changing needs of parents and the school.
- In carrying out the Title I, Part A, parental involvement requirements, to the extent practicable, George Jr. High School will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports in an understandable and uniform format and including alternative formats upon request and, to the extent practicable, in language parents understand.
- If the school-wide program plan for Title I, Part A is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, George Jr. High School will submit any parent comments with the plan when the school submits the plan to Lamar CISD.
- George Jr. High School will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how the 1 percent of Title I, Part A funds reserved for parental involvement is spent, and will ensure that not less than 95 percent of the 1 percent reserved goes directly to the schools.
- George Jr. High School will build its own and the parent's capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement.
- George Jr. High will provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under section 1116 of the ESSA as the parents may request.

- George Jr. High School will be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving student academic learning and other school activities, including ensuring—

(A) that parents play an integral role in assisting their child’s learning;

(B) that parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child’s education at school;

(C) that parents are full partners in their child’s education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child;

(D) the carrying out of other activities, such as those described in section 1116 (d)(2) of the ESSA.

DESCRIPTION OF HOW SCHOOLS WILL IMPLEMENT REQUIRED SCHOOL PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT POLICY COMPONENTS

1. George Jr. High School will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its school parental involvement plan under section 1116 (c) (1) (2) of the ESSA:

 - sharing the information during Open House
 - sharing the information during 7th Grade Orientation
 - sharing the information in Skyward
 5. George Jr. High School will at the request of parents, provide opportunities for regular meetings for parents to formulate suggestions and to participate, as appropriate, in decisions about the education of their children. The school will respond to any such suggestions as soon as practicably possible by:
 - Meeting with parents, sending home skylerts, emails and verbal messages.
 6. George Jr. High School will provide each parent an individual student report about the performance of their child on the State assessment in at least math, language arts and reading by:
 - student reports will be handed out to at the beginning of the year.
 - student reports will be available to parents in Skyward
 7. George Jr. High School will provide assistance to parents of children served by the school, as appropriate, in understanding topics by undertaking the actions described in this paragraph at the Title I parent meeting and the STAAR information meeting--
 - the state's academic content standards,
 - the state's student academic achievement standards,
 - the state and local academic assessments including alternate assessments,
 - the requirements of Part A,
 - how to monitor their child's progress, and
 - how to work with educators:
 - parent Conferences, aiding parents about students' progress
 - parent night will be offered in the Spring.
 8. George Jr. High School will provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's academic achievement, such as literacy training and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement by:
 - signing up for free Office 365, Newsletter, Canvas and providing additional training based on the parents' needs

9. George Jr. High School will, with the assistance of its parents, educate its teachers, pupil services personnel, principals and other staff in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools, by:
 - Providing training and staff development meeting regarding parent involvement and meaningful partnership. Methods of contact discussed at Facility Meeting at beginning of year.

10. George Jr. High School will take the following actions to ensure that information related to the school and parent-programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand:
 - The information related to the student is shared with the parents through our school website, Skylert, call-outs, email, Newsletters, GJH on Twitter and/or Facebook, logging into our LCISD Skyward account and marquee.
