February 18, 2025

TAPR Overview

- Formerly known as the Academic Excellence Indicator System (AEIS), the report has been published from the 1990-1991 school year to the present.
- The TAPR provides performance and demographic information for each school and district in Texas.
- The report provides extensive data on student performance as well as student and staff demographics.

How to Access TAPR

The screenshot shows the TEA website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Popular Applications, AskTED, ECOS for Educators, Grant Opportunities, Secure Applications, TEAL Login, and TSDS. A Help Desk icon is also present. Below this is the TEA logo and a search bar. A secondary navigation bar includes links for A-Z Index, Contact, Employment, State Board of Education, Sign Up for Updates, and TEA Correspondence. A main menu features icons for About TEA, Texas Schools, Academics, Finance & Grants, Reports & Data, Student Assessment, and Texas Educators. The breadcrumb trail reads: Home / Texas Schools / Accountability / Academic Accountability / Performance Reporting. The main heading is "Texas Academic Performance Reports". The text explains that TAPR provides information on student performance, disaggregated by student groups, and includes school and district staff, program, and demographic data. It notes that 2023-24 TAPR are available for the state and every public school, district, or region of Texas, and that final TAPR for previous years are currently available. On the right, there are sections for "Related Content" (Texas Performance Reporting System (TPRS), School Report Cards, Snapshot) and "Contact Information" (Division of Performance Reporting, Phone: (512) 463-9704).

Annual Ratings

- Ratings for both the 2022-2023 and 2023-2024 school years have not been released by the Texas Education Agency due to judicial action brought about by retroactive increases in College, Career, and Military Readiness (CCMR) performance targets.
- As revised in August 2024, the District is projected to receive an 84 or a “B” Rating.
